

Congratulations!

Dear Alia and Ranbir,

In honour of your recent nuptials and your love for animals, Animal Rahat has named two rescued horses Alia and Ranbir.

The mare had been used for rides and ceremonies and the stallion to haul tourist carriages. Both were found in poor condition but are now living in the care of one of Animal Rahat's sanctuaries. Today, they are inseparable.

A marriage represents a new beginning, and as these horses have had a new beginning, we thought their new life would be the perfect way to mark the start of your journey together as husband and wife.
